

PSORIATIC ARTHRITIS SIMPLY COMPLEMENT

1. Which of the following statements is correct when prescribing a NSAID in patients with rheumatic diseases:

- A. Two NSAIDs can be prescribed simultaneously
- B. Intravenous administration of a NSAID helps to avoid gastrointestinal toxicity
- C. A NSAID can be prescribed to a patient receiving oral anticoagulants
- D. Allergy to a NSAID class excludes the possibility to prescribe a NSAID form another class
- E. To avoid adverse reactions, a NSAID has to be prescribed in a minimally efficient dose and duration

E

2. Symptomatic treatment of psoriatic arthritis includes:

- A. Clarithromycin
- B. NSAIDs
- C. Benzatinbenzylpenicillin
- D. D-penicilamine
- E. Methotrexate

B

3. What rheumatic disease presents with arthritis mutilans?

- A. Systemic lupus erythematosus
- B. Rheumatoid arthritis
- C. Reactive arthritis
- D. Psoriatic arthritis
- E. Gout

D

4. The CASPAR diagnostic criteria are used for the diagnosis of:

- A. Rheumatoid arthritis
- B. Psoriatic arthritis
- C. Systemic lupus erythematosus
- D. Reactive arthritis
- E. Gout

B

5. Osteolytic lesions of phalanges and metacarpophalangeal joints with the aspect of “telescoped” fingers, are characteristic for:

- A. Systemic lupus erythematosus
- B. Rheumatoid arthritis
- C. Reactive arthritis
- D. Psoriatic arthritis
- E. Gout

D